Twilight Chamber Music at Rippon Lea with a French Connection Sunday May 20 at 6.30pm

Two outstanding exponents of the chamber music tradition, Elizabeth Sellars, violin and pianist, Rohan Murray join forces in the charming ballroom of Rippon Lea Estate on May 20 at 6:30pm for a sublime concert experience showcasing a 'French Connection'.

From the dramatic tableau of Faure's violin sonata in A-major through favourites by Claude Debussy, including Beau Soir and The girl with the flaxen hair through Georgy Catoire's luscious Elegie for violin and piano, to the contrasting sounds of Beethoven's 6th Violin Sonata - a surprisingly genial affirming work dating shortly before the disconsolate outpouring in his famous Heiligenstadt Testament.

Elizabeth has established herself in Australia and abroad as a chamber musician of international standing, having toured as a performer, teacher and adjudicator internationally and throughout Australia.

Playing with Sellars on the piano, is one of Melbourne's most established chamber musicians, Rohan Murray, a sought after solo and chamber musician.

This concert is part of the Team of Pianists recital series Twilight Chamber Music at Rippon Lea, with concerts monthly until September.
